YOUTH RESIDENTIAL SERVICES

HeartShare St. Vincent's Services' (HSVS) Youth Residential Services provides support to our youth in care to gain independent living skills. In this environment, our young people attend school, participate in community activities and are part of a family, including several housemates who have also experienced foster care and dedicated staff that offer personal, academic and career counseling.

WHO WE SERVE

Young men and women ages 12-21 who are currently in foster care.

LOCATIONS

HSVS has four youth residences for teenagers and young adults in Queens and Staten Island.

WHAT WE OFFER

- Independent living skills, including education, employment and financial literacy
- Participation in community activities
- Personal, academic & career counseling
- Permanency planning
- Compassionate, skilled professionals
- Family-like atmosphere
